ABA Model Rule on Admission by Motion

(Adopted August 12, 2002)

1. An applicant who meets the requirements of (a) through (g) of this Rule may, upon motion, be admitted to the practice of law in this jurisdiction.

The applicant shall:

- (a) have been admitted to practice law in another state, territory, or the District of Columbia;
 - (b) hold a first professional degree in law (J.D. or LL.B.) from a law school approved by the Council of the Section of Legal Education and Admissions to the Bar of the American Bar Association at the time the graduate matriculated;
 - (c) have been primarily engaged in the active practice of law in one or more states, territories or the District of Columbia for five of the seven years immediately preceding the date upon which the application is filed;
 - (d) establish that the applicant is currently a member in good standing in all jurisdictions where admitted;
 - (e) establish that the applicant is not currently subject to lawyer discipline or the subject of a pending disciplinary matter in any other jurisdiction;
 - (f) establish that the applicant possesses the character and fitness to practice law in this jurisdiction; and
 - (g) designate the Clerk of the jurisdiction's highest court for service of process.
2. For the purposes of this rule, the "active practice of law" shall include the following activities, if performed in a jurisdiction in which the applicant is admitted, or if performed in a jurisdiction that affirmatively permits such activity by a lawyer not admitted to practice; however, in no event shall activities listed under (2)(e) and (f) that were performed in advance of bar admission in the jurisdiction to which application is being made be accepted toward the durational requirement:
 - (a) Representation of one or more clients in the practice of law;
 - (b) Service as a lawyer with a local, state, territorial or federal agency, including military service;
 - (c) Teaching law at a law school approved by the Council of the Section of Legal Education and Admissions to the Bar of the American Bar Association;
 - (d) Service as a judge in a federal, state, territorial or local court of record;
 - (e) Service as a judicial law clerk; or
 - (f) Service as corporate counsel.
3. For the purposes of this Rule, the active practice of law shall not include work that, as undertaken, constituted the unauthorized practice of law in the jurisdiction in which it was performed or in the jurisdiction in which the clients receiving the unauthorized services were located.

- 4. An applicant who has failed a bar examination administered in this jurisdiction within five years of the date of filing an application under this rule shall not be eligible for admission on motion.

EXHIBIT C

CONFERENCE OF CHIEF JUSTICES

Resolution 36

Regarding the ABA Commission on Multi-Jurisdictional Practice

WHEREAS, the states' highest courts regard consumer protection and an effective system of professional regulation as one of their prime responsibilities; and

WHEREAS, the Commission on Multi-Jurisdictional Practice (the MJP Commission) has outlined a series of steps to improve the American Bar Association's model rules on the practice of law and the regulation of the profession; and

WHEREAS, the Commission's report emphasizes and reaffirms the central role of state courts in implementing improvements in law practice and professional responsibility.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that

1. The Conference of Chief Justices commends the proposals of the MJP Commission as a good platform on which states can build more effective, more predictable regulation; and
2. The Conference of Chief Justices asks its representative in the ABA's House of Delegates vote to adopt the recommendations of the MJP Commission.
